CONTENTS.

VOLUME X.

No. 1. Letter to the Recorder of London, by Richard Hassell and others in Newgate—Letter to the Editor from X.—Two letters from the Reverend Robert Taylor—Memoir of Mr. Taylor extracted from a pamphlet entitled Pontius Pilate's Appeal, &c.—Egyptian Gods, and Insincerity of the Christians, &c., extracts from Hume's Natural History of Religion—Letter to the Editor from J. G.—Petition from Sheffield for free discussion—Letter to the Editor of the Morning Herald, by Richard Carlile—Letter and subscription from Wisbech—Letter from a thinking Christian—Various subscriptions—A Hymn extracted from the Gospel according to Philalethes—Trial of John Clarke—Notice to Correspondents—Smith's Penknives.

No. 2. Letter to the Twelve Jurymen about to try Thomas Riley Perry—Trial of John Clarke concluded—Liberation of Mrs. Wright.

No. 3. Trial of William Haley—Petition to the House of Commons, and Correspondence with Sir Francis Burdett—Notice of Mr. Perry's Trial—Letter to the Recorder from Mrs. Perry.

No. 4. Trial of William Cochrane—Ditto of Thomas Riley Perry—Letter to the Recorder of London by William Haley—Letter and subscription from John Smithson, Leeds—Letter to Ditto—Letter to Lord Chief Justice Abbott.

No. 5. Prosecutions for Blasphemy—Third Dialogue between the Gods—Letter from and to Mr. James Green of Halifax with a subscription—Letter 1 to Dr. Cotton by Richard Hassell—Letter from the author of the Theological Dialogues—Letter to the Vicar of Cerne, by Richard Hassell—The Battle, a Poem, by J. B.—Letter from Sheffield, by W. V. Holmes—Various subscriptions.

No. 6. Letter to Mr. Garland—Subscription for Mrs. Wright from Shelderslow—Letter from and to Mr. Charles Walker of Ashton-under-line, with a subscription—Letter to Messrs. Hassell and Campion, from Mr. Waller—Letter from Portsea with Subscription—Letter from I. G.—Various Subscriptions.

No. 7. Letter 1 to Mr. Sturt—Letter from Candid on Atmospherical Phenomena—Prize Parody of Cowper's John Gilpin—Letter from the Translator of Dupuis—Correspondence between

CONTENTS.

VOLUME X.

No. 1. Letter to the Recorder of London, by Richard Hassell and others in Newgate—Letter to the Editor from X.—Two letters from the Reverend Robert Taylor—Memoir of Mr. Taylor extracted from a pamphlet entitled Pontius Pilate's Appeal, &c.—Egyptian Gods, and Insincerity of the Christians, &c., extracts from Hume's Natural History of Religion—Letter to the Editor from J. G.—Petition from Sheffield for free discussion—Letter to the Editor of the Morning Herald, by Richard Carlile—Letter and subscription from Wisbech—Letter from a thinking Christian—Various subscriptions—A Hymn extracted from the Gospel according to Philalethes—Trial of John Clarke—Notice to Correspondents—Smith's Penknives.

No. 2. Letter to the Twelve Jurymen about to try Thomas Riley Perry—Trial of John Clarke concluded—Liberation of Mrs. Wright.

No. 3. Trial of William Haley—Petition to the House of Commons, and Correspondence with Sir Francis Burdett—Notice of Mr. Perry's Trial—Letter to the Recorder from Mrs. Perry.

No. 4. Trial of William Cochrane—Ditto of Thomas Riley Perry—Letter to the Recorder of London by William Haley—Letter and subscription from John Smithson, Leeds—Letter to Ditto—Letter to Lord Chief Justice Abbott.

No. 5. Prosecutions for Blasphemy—Third Dialogue between the Gods—Letter from and to Mr. James Green of Halifax with a subscription—Letter 1 to Dr. Cotton by Richard Hassell—Letter from the author of the Theological Dialogues—Letter to the Vicar of Cerne, by Richard Hassell—The Battle, a Poem, by J. B.—Letter from Sheffield, by W. V. Holmes—Various subscriptions.

No. 6. Letter to Mr. Garland—Subscription for Mrs. Wright from Shelderslow—Letter from and to Mr. Charles Walker of Ashton-under-line, with a subscription—Letter to Messrs. Hassell and Campion, from Mr. Waller—Letter from Portsea with Subscription—Letter from I. G.—Various Subscriptions.

No. 7. Letter 1 to Mr. Sturt—Letter from Candid on Atmospherical Phenomena—Prize Parody of Cowper's John Gilpin—Letter from the Translator of Dupuis—Correspondence between a Doctor of Medicine and a Unitarian Preacher both of Dundee, commenced—Note on the crcifixion of Prometheus—Letter from Joseph Swann.

No. 8. Letter 2 to Doctor Cotton, by Richard Hassell—Letter to the Bishop of Bristol by Richard Carlile—Letter from and to Mr. Hodgson Smith of Bradford Yorkshire, with a subscription—Letter to Lord Chief Justice Abbott—Further notice of Red Jacket the Indian Chief—On Persecution, by J. Lee—Correspondence between the Doctor and the Priest continued—Correspondence from Wisbech on the subject of a religious tract—A dispatch from Lieutenant Perry to General Carlile—Various subscriptions—Notice of the appearance of "The Newgate Magazine."

No. 9. Further Correspondence with Mr. Fitton of Royton, Lancashire—Correspondence between the Doctor and the Priest continued.

No. 10. Letter 2 to Mr. Sturt—Letter to Mr. Hodgson Smith, by Mrs. Wright—Correspondence from W. D. M. of Salford—Observations on the instructions given by Jesus Christ, by R. A. Letter 3 to Doctor Cotton, by Richard Hassell—Letter by Francis John—Various subscriptions.

No. 11. Prosecutions for Moral Blasphemy in Scotland, with copies of two indictments against Mr. James Affleck.

No. 12. Critique on a Sermon—Continuation of Mr. Affieck's Indictment.

No. 13. Letter 4 to Doctor Cotton, by Richard Hassell—Agrarian Equality, letter from Allen Devenport, with notes by Richard Carlile—Conclusion of Mr. Affleck's indictment, with a report of the proceedings in Court, and Lawyer's Bill of Fare.

No. 14. Richard Carlile to Abel Bywater—Correspondence from Mr. R. T. Webb of Hammersmith—Letter from and to Mr. Dickson of Dewsbury, with a subscription—Letter from Mr. James Affleck—Another Edinburgh letter on the subject of Mr. A.'s prosecution—Notice to Correspondents.

No. 15. Letter 21 to Judge Bailey—Letters from James Hall—Letter from Mr. James Watson on Astrology.

No. 16. Letter 22 to Judge Bailey---Letter from Mr. James Penny, with Notes by Richard Carlile---Continuation of the Analysis of Dupuis---Letter from and to Mr. Ellerker with a subscription from Stockton.

No. 17. Letter to Mr. Wollaston---Two Essays by R. T. Webb Correspondence between the Doctor and the Priest continued---Extract from a latter from a friend at Hull---Subscription from Sherborne.

No. 18. Letter from Mr. John Fellows of New York, being a Memoir of Elihu Palmer---Principles of the New York Deistical Society---Three Chapters of an unfinished work, by Elihu Palmer ---Continuation of the correspondence between the Doctor and Priest---Extract from a letter from a Yorkshire Surgeon---Queries for the consideration of those who feel inclined to use their reflecting faculties---Subscriptions, &c.

No. 19. Letter 23 to Judge Bailey---Correspondence with F.---Letter to a young Unitarian Priest of Bristol, by F. A. J., with note by R. Carlile on the origin of man and other animals---The President of the Edinburgh Zetetic Society to Richard Carlile---Same to Abel Bywater---Edinburgh Petition for free discussion---Letter to the Reverend John Parsons of Sherborne.

No. 20. Letter 24 to Judge Bailey---Letter from and to Mr. John Walker of Nottingham---Account of the fire in Fleet Street ---Further correspondence with F.

No. 21. Letter 24 to Judge Bailey concluded---Poetical squib from the Morning Chronicle with an answer---Correspondence between the Doctor and Priest, concluded---Account of second fire at 84, Fleet Street, the Christian fire---Extract of a letter written to a friend in Edinburgh on the subject of the fire.

No. 22. Letter 25 to Judge Bailey---The Samanean Doctrine ---Religious Principles of Fot---Cabalism, not Christianity---Account of Crishna from the Asiatic Researches---Parallel between Crishna and Christ.

No. 23. Letter to Henry Lees, and the followers of Johanna Southcote generally—Gospel of the Infancy of Jesus Christ—Letter from and to Mr. William Blackshaw of Stockport, with subscription.

No. 24. Letter to the Reverend John Parsons of Sherborne---Letter to the Reverend George Harris, of Bolton, Lancashire---Letter to William Cobbett---Copy of a letter sent to the King, Carlton Palace---Letter to Mrs. Carlile from Paris---Letter to Mr. R. Carlile, by James Watson---To Correspondents.

No. 25. Copy of a Memorial sent to the Right Honourable Robert Peel, Secretary of State for the Home Department---Letter to Mr. R. Carlile from James Watson, conciuded---Correspondence with Mr. Robert Gourlay---Notices, Erratum, Subscriptions.

No. 26. Local Fray---Letter to the Editor of the Dorset County Chronicle---Lettet to the Visiting Magistrates of Dorchester Goal---Copy of a letter sent to the King, Windsor Castle---Another do. do.--To the Saints not yet gone to Heaven, and to all others who may desire to array themselves as my Enemies---Letter to Mr R. Carlile by Mr. Robert Affleck.